ORDER

Kerala University of Health Sciences had invited application from the affiliated colleges to be recognized as PhD research centres of KUHS as per the notification read as (1) above. On the basis of the applications of the 42 institutions from various departments to be recognized under KUHS, a scrutiny committee had constituted to examine these applications and selected 36 research centres as per the paper read as 2nd above for inspection. An inspection committee had also constituted as per the order read as 3rd above and it conducted inspection at the institutions and recommended approval of 29 institutions for conducting PhD programme under KUHS.

The Academic Council has approved the recommendations of the scrutiny committee and 29 research centres selected to be registered as recognized under KUHS. In compliance to the decision of the Academic Council as per the paper read as (5) above, the Governing Council has approved the minutes as per the paper read as (6) and the decision was implemented.

In the circumstances sanction is hereby accorded by the Vice Chancellor, in exercise of his powers under section 12(7) of Kerala University of Health Sciences Act 2010, the recognition of the following 29 Institutions as research centres under Kerala University of Health Sciences for pursuing the studies for PhD programme.
